

Jack Adams

Jack Adams was a local undertaker, who in a 29-year cricketing career from 1924 to 1953 spread his wings with numerous clubs.

He was a classy right-hand batsman and an elite fielder who played with:

St Patrick's
Border
Devonia
Albury

South Albury
Commercial Club Colts
CYMC
South Albury

As a batsman, Jack scored 16 centuries, including:

- 102 against Border
- 105 against Waratah
- 111 against North Albury
- 112 against Wodonga
- 113 against St Matthews
- 126 against Murray
- 137 against Hume Weir

He played at Country Week on 8 occasions, 4 times as Captain.

Not only was Jack a cricketer, but he also took on many administrative roles, including Association President for 6 years, and travelling to Melbourne 9 times as the Country Week Manager.