

Jim Wilson

Jim Wilson was an outstanding all-rounder, right hand batsman and right arm opening fast bowler. He played 10 seasons with Kiwi's, Bandiana, Wodonga, and East Albury.

He scored 6 centuries, including:

- 105 against North Albury
- 123 against Murray South
- 177 not out against Murray South in a Semi Final, and
- 151 against East Albury in a Grand Final

His best bowling efforts were:

- 7 for 14 and 7 for 6 against Lavington in his 1st ever game in the Association
- 9 for 46 and 7 for 19 against East Albury
- 8 for 27 and 7 for 16 against Lavington
- 5 for 67 and 6 for 18 in the Grand Final against Newmarket.

His best all round effort was:

- 7 for 24 and 87 not out against City Colts

Jim won the Inaugural Williamson Medal and Cricketer of the Year in the 1957/58 season.

He represented the Association at Country Week on 4 occasions, including the 1947-48 side that won the Provincial Grade Premiership.